

Why a Beyond Cana® weekend?

You make sure your car gets regular maintenance service. If you're a homeowner, you probably have once or twice a year checks of your home's heating and AC. And you try to make choices to support a healthy life style.

But what about your marriage? When did you and your spouse last take the time to support your already good marriage?

Beyond Cana® provides couples with the time and tools to enrich and strengthen healthy marriages. The weekend's blend of spiritual and practical talks, discussion time with your spouse, and prayer is designed to improve communication and your relationship with your spouse — even if it's good now.

Time Alone

In today's world where busy-ness is virtuous, wouldn't it be nice to grab some time just for the two of you?
